5. STUDY SESSION

A. GOAL SETTING STUDY SESSION

City Manager Malin introduced the item speaking to the list of items that the Council had derived at the December 10, 2020 City Council Goal Setting meeting. He detailed the organization of information based on the Council expressed priorities, how he planned to fulfill them over the course of two years and requested the Council consider building additional discussion capacity on behalf of the Council for additional meetings to accomplish the list.

The Council discussed their individual priorities from the list, agreed to hold additional study sessions on specific topics to continue progress. City Manager Malin agreed to provide a quarterly update on goal progress and a financial report to the City Council. He also agreed to have a report on the March 1st meeting on food truck regulations, language inclusivity, and youth engagement, including information on possible internship programs.
