CITY OF SEASIDE
STAFF REPORT

Item No.: 6.A.

TO: Neighborhood Improvement Program

BY: Dan Meewis, Assistant City Manager

DATE: December 16, 2025

SUBJECT: TOUR AND JUDGE THE HOMES THAT ARE PARTICIPATING IN THE ANNUAL HOLIDAY LIGHTS CONTEST

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Commission tour and judge the homes participating in the City's Annual Holiday Lights Contest and provide scoring based on the established contest criteria.

BACKGROUND

Each year, the City of Seaside hosts the Annual Holiday Lights Contest to encourage community engagement, celebrate creativity, and spread holiday spirit throughout the neighborhoods. Residents are invited to decorate their homes, and participants are evaluated based on creativity, use of lights, holiday theme, and overall presentation.

The Neighborhood Improvement Commission traditionally serves as the judging body for the contest. This role supports the Commission's ongoing commitment to community involvement, beautification, and recognition of resident participation in City programming. However, over the last couple of years the Parks and Recreation Commission as partnered with the NIC.

For the 2025 contest, community interest has remained strong, with several households registered to participate. Staff has prepared a list of entries and a recommended route for the Commissions to tour and score each location.
