7. REPORTS FROM COMMISSIONERS

JONES: Gave kudos to ACS Kjellgren for his proactivity in the community and his vast knowledge.

FOLIAKI: Hats off to the police department for attending Seaside High School, Monterey High School and Central Coast High School's graduation ceremonies.

AMARANTE: Shared that community members are grateful for the dedicated phone numbers to report 4th of July illegal fireworks.

THOMAS: Thanked the City Manager and City Clerk for the invitation to MBFC employee night. They were treated like VIPs. Attended the 5th Annual George Floyd Community Engagement & Building Bridges Symposium as the keynote speaker, along with City Manager Greg McDanel.

VELAZQUEZ: Represented CSAC at the My Life Story Conference in Salinas, California. Thanked the police department for attending Seaside High School, Monterey High School and Central Coast High School's graduation ceremonies. Informed the commission that Yessica Rodriguez, with Behavioural Health, would like to present to the commission.

KATZ: The subcommittee has not been contacted regarding the civic seal project. The project is on hold until the next school year. He continues to attend the Blue Ribbon Panel, on behalf of the commission.

8. REPORTS FROM STAFF

Chief Borges provided the following updates:

- National Night Out will be held on August 4th from 4:00–7:00 p.m., out on the city hall lawn.
- Fireworks have been going off throughout the city. However, it is definitely less than the past few years. The police department's focus is enforcement and consequence, while the fire department's focus is on safety.
- Home depot is potentially willing to close their parking lot on the 4th of July as well as during car week.
- In the Terrace, Sonoma and Amador areas, there has been an uptick in gang graffiti.
- CHAMP program is going great. They will be attending a San Francisco Giants game on July 8th.
- The department is working aggressively on cold cases. They are grateful for the feedback from the community.
- Great and informative information is being sent out about our animal care resources. Monterey County is wanting to mirror our Seaside policy as a model for a county wide ordinance.
